Introduction

The American Public Human Services Association (APHSA) and the American Association of Administrators of the Interstate Compact for the Placement of Children (AAICPC) is looking to streamline and enhance the business processes around the placement of children across State lines. It is envisioned that this project will enhance the administrative efficiencies and result in efficient processing of Interstate cases from both a timely as well as cost savings perspective. In order to achieve these efficiencies, the AAICPC proposes to utilize technology to support these business processes. While one of the focus areas is the implementation of a technology solution, it is critical that the Pilot implementation demonstrate the following:

- Faster processing of cases,
- Quicker placement decisions,
- Standardization and reporting of interstate data,
- Ability to perform analytic comparisons across multiple components and jurisdictions.

Another potential benefit is the cost savings based on reduction in postage and other costs as well as the time spent by the case workers and users in trying to obtain information about a case. The State of Florida has already developed and is utilizing a system to support its information processing needs. However, there are some system enhancements that will be required to enable this system to be utilized across state lines. In addition, thought and consideration needs to be given to state specific privacy requirements as these cases move across state lines.

Interface Specifications

As an extension to the current export process NEICE system will export the Case data along with the Child and Placement resource information. All case related data will be exported whenever there is an update to a case. The case export will be a full export with the most current record. The export will be in CSV format and will be placed on the FTP folder.

NEICE system will also export the documents that are added or modified to the case. The documents will be placed under the FTP folder.

Data Export

An end of day job will be run on the NEICE system that will export the state cases and place it on the FTP server under separate FTP accounts for each state. The records will contain all sent and received cases for the state which has been modified or created during the day. The cases will be exported in a CSV format as defined below. The FTP server will have a folder called as "Download" that will contain the CSV files which will be named with the following convention.

Filename format :

<STATECODE>_NEICE_AGENCY_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

<STATECODE>_NEICE_CASE_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

<STATECODE>_NEICE_CHILD_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

<STATECODE>_NEICE_NOTES_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

<STATECODE>_NEICE_PLRES_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

<STATECODE>_NEICE_TRANSMITTAL_MESSAGE_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

<STATECODE>_NEICE_VIOLATION_EXCHANGE_<DATE_TIME>.csv

The CSV file will contain a header record with the field headers defined below. Every CSV row exported will contain the complete Case details for every export. If a case consisted of multiple children then multiple rows will be exported for each Case and Child combination. The rows containing the same case can be identified using the NEICECaseID field which will contain the same value but a distinct NEICEChildID will be present in each row. Every row will consist of all columns defined below irrespective of the type of case. Based on the Case type (either Sending or Receiving) a particular column could be populated with value or left blank, the following table gives the fields that would be present during the appropriate export.

Child Export

Note: All exported files will be in the FTP folder and the states should delete the record once the data is successfully loaded. It might be a good idea for the states to wait a few minutes after the last modified timestamp of the file to make sure that the file is not being actively written.

Document Export

All case documents that have either been uploaded or modified will be exported to the FTP location assigned for each state under the document export folder. A folder will be created for each day and a zip file will be created for each case, all documents that were newly added or updated will be added to the zip file. The file name will be of the format

NEICE_DOCUMENTS_<StateCode>_<NEICECaseID>_<DATETIME>.zip

The zip metadata file contains DocumentID, CaseID, ChildID, ChildName, FromState, ToState, DocumentCode, DocumentDescription, DocumentStatus, CreatedDate, FileType, FileName, UploadedDate and AttachedDate
